

BARRISTER EXPANDS WITH THE HIRING OF BRANNDON NESSPOR

The wealth management firm in an effort to continue offering the highest levels of financial planning, investment management and client service adds new employee.

PHILADELPHIA, Jul. 12, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Brannndon joins Barrister from Vanguard where he spent the past 3 years working in the Retail Services and Portfolio Implementation groups. Prior to working at Vanguard, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Studies with a concentration in Finance from Stockton University. While at Stockton he studied financial planning in courses taught by Charles Weeks. He also studied international finance for a semester at the University of Barcelona in Spain

“Thanks to you, our valued clients, and broader network of friends and professional contacts, Barrister has experienced exceptional growth over the last several years. We continue to invest in our business and roll out enhanced services to make your experience working with us as seamless and productive as possible. In light of this progress, and to ensure that we continue to deliver on our commitments to all of you, we are pleased to announce the hiring of our first full time employee, Brannndon Nesspor.” says Paul Savini, CFP®, Partner.

Charles Weeks Jr., JD, CFP®, Founding Partner says of the hiring, “Brannndon was a great student of mine at Stockton and he has kept in touch over the years, always asking if we had an opportunity for him with the firm. This time when he asked, we did have that opportunity, and I am very confident he will make Barrister a better financial planning practice.”

Founded in 2010, Barrister's mission is to offer clients the opportunity to meet their financial objectives through ethical, unbiased and competent professional guidance. With the increased focus on growth, the firm is well positioned to serve its expanding client base and attract like-minded CFP® practitioners to its platform.
